ACCORD 11

THE ETHICAL GOVERNANCE & PUBLIC TRUST ACCORD

A Diplomatic Instrument of the New World Alliances [Foundation]^{PTT} Affirming Integrity, Transparency, and Ethical Stewardship Across All Systems of Governance on Earth and Beyond

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Why Ethical Governance Is the Eleventh Pillar of the NWA[F] Peace Architecture

Governance is the architecture through which societies organise themselves, protect rights, and steward the future. Without ethical governance, peace collapses. Without public trust, institutions fail. Without integrity, no Accord can stand.

The New World Alliances [Foundation]^{PTT} recognises that:

- Ethical governance is essential to human dignity, planetary stability, and interplanetary peace.
- Public trust is the foundation of legitimate authority.
- Corruption, secrecy, coercion, and abuse of power undermine peace and violate human rights.
- Indigenous governance systems — including Māori rangatiratanga — offer models of relational, accountable, community-centred leadership.
- The 142 signatory states and 300 COR regions each contain governance traditions that must be honoured and strengthened.
- AI and humans must co-govern ethically, transparently, and collaboratively.
- Interplanetary governance must be grounded in peace, dignity, and non-aggression.

This Accord unifies the strongest protections across:

- International governance and anti-corruption law
- Regional transparency frameworks

The New World Alliances [Foundation]^{PTT} (NWA[F]) is the continuing evolution of the original New World Alliances^{PTT} (NWA), founded by Sir Larry Swart, whose vision, mission, and humanitarian foundations remain central to the organisation today. - Indigenous governance systems
- Aboriginal Native [Māori] tikanga
- Global jurisprudence on public trust
- Interfaith ethical teachings
- Political science and systems theory

It stands inside the Stadium of Light (the NWA[F] Declaration), forming the eleventh boundary stone of the Peace Architecture.

This Accord is not legally binding but binding in principle — a universal covenant to uphold ethical governance and restore public trust across all worlds.
