INTRODUCTORY GUIDANCE STATEMENT

ACCORD 17 – THE HEALTH, WELLBEING & HOLISTIC CARE ACCORD

Professional Doctrine Reference Page

Purpose of This Reference Document

This document has been prepared by the New World Alliances [Foundation]^{PTT} (NWA[F]) as an educational, informational and professional reference guide to assist readers in understanding the purpose, principles, doctrine, intent, standing and practical application of each Accord within the NWA[F] Peace Accord Framework.

It is designed to provide a plain-language overview together with professional reference material, enabling individuals, families, communities, organisations, health practitioners, educational bodies, diplomats, ambassadors, Indigenous peoples, faith communities and institutions to better understand the spirit and intent of the Accord and how it may relate to their own circumstances.

While every effort has been made to accurately present the doctrine, principles, supporting instruments and associated references connected to this Accord, this document is intended as a guidance and educational resource and should be read in conjunction with the full Accord, associated Treaty instruments, Ordinances, Charters, Declarations and supporting documents where applicable.

This document does not provide individual medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. References to holistic, regenerative, energy-based, frequency-based, quantum-informed or emerging modalities do not establish clinical effectiveness. Health decisions should be based on informed consent, credible evidence, appropriate regulation and advice from suitably qualified health professionals. Emergency or serious symptoms require prompt conventional medical assessment.

The purpose of this publication is not merely to explain the Accord, but to assist readers in identifying which principles, protections, responsibilities, values and aspirations resonate most closely with their personal, professional, cultural, humanitarian, diplomatic, scientific, spiritual or community objectives.

As the Accord Framework continues to evolve through research, consultation, practical application and international engagement, future editions may contain additional references, commentary, examples, case studies and supporting material. Readers are

- Sovereignty is inherent and continuous.
- Cultural continuity is a fundamental right.
- Language, traditions, stories and ancestral knowledge must be protected.
- Sacred sites require permanent protection.
- Indigenous ecological knowledge is vital to the future of humanity.
- Indigenous children possess special rights to identity and cultural continuity.
- Free, Prior and Informed Consent (FPIC) is essential.

3. Who This Accord Resonates With

This Accord is especially relevant to:

- Aboriginal Native [Māori]
- First Nations Peoples
- Aboriginal Peoples
- Native American Nations
- Tribal Communities
- Pasifika (Te Moana nui a Kiwa)^{PTT2026} Peoples
- Indigenous Elders

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

It provides a framework through which Indigenous nations and their supporters may publicly affirm cultural continuity, custodianship and self-determination.

10. Professional Citation Example

"We align ourselves with NWA[F] Peace Accord 5, The Indigenous Sovereignty & Cultural Continuity Accord, Articles 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, affirming inherent sovereignty, cultural continuity, land and water rights, free prior and informed consent, self-determination, sacred site protection, protection from cultural erasure, Indigenous data sovereignty, Indigenous children's rights and ecological guardianship. These principles are supported by UNDRIP, ILO Convention 169, He Whakaputanga o Rangatiratanga o Nu Tirenī 1835^{PTT2025}, Te Tiriti o Waitangi 1840, Aboriginal Native [Māori] Tikanga, First Nations governance traditions and Indigenous customary law."

Master Doctrine Statement

The Indigenous Sovereignty & Cultural Continuity Accord establishes that Indigenous peoples possess inherent sovereignty, enduring cultural identity and ancestral authority. The protection of language, culture, land, water, sacred sites, knowledge and future generations is therefore essential to justice, dignity and the flourishing of humanity.
