GLOBAL HUMANITARIAN & SOVEREIGN COOPERATION DECLARATION

(Aligned with International Law, the United Nations Charter, and the Vienna Convention Principles)

PREAMBLE

This Declaration is issued under the guiding principles of international cooperation, sovereign equality, and the preservation of human dignity, as reflected in the foundational instruments of global governance, including the United Nations Charter and the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations (1961).

Recognizing:

- The inherent dignity and equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family;
- The sovereign equality of all States;
- The importance of peaceful relations, non-interference, and mutual respect;
- The urgent global need for coordinated humanitarian, ecological, cultural, and developmental action;

The New World Alliances Foundation (NWAf) hereby sets forth this Declaration as a framework for voluntary international cooperation, in alignment with existing legal, diplomatic, and humanitarian structures.

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE

The purpose of this Declaration is to establish a Global Humanitarian and Sovereign Cooperation Framework that:
